Boston Commandery of Knights Templars

JOSEPH T. PAUL,
EMINENT COMMANDER
419 BOYLSTON STREET
BOSTON

BOSTON, MASS., June 2, 1915.

SIR KNIGHTS:

Arrangements have been made by your Committee for the Annual Pilgrimage of the Sir Knights and Ladies of Boston Commandery, celebrating St. John's Day, at Hotel Wentworth, New Castle, N. H., for Saturday and Sunday, June 26 and 27, 1915, and it is planned to make the trip in automobiles.

This well-known summer resort is finely located and the trip by automobile is one of the most beautiful and attractive in New England. Many of our Sir Knights own automobiles, and several years ago we found them most generous in response to the invitation of the Committee to tender the use of them on a similar occasion.

The same plan will be followed at this time, i. e., each car carrying four or more persons, including the operator, will receive one ticket without charge, and the Sir Knight will reserve the seats necessary to accommodate his own party, the remaining seats, if any, at the disposal of the Committee. The seats not reserved will be assigned to other members conveniently located. Sir Knights who will thus aid the Committee and participate in the Pilgrimage are requested to notify the Eminent Commander to that effect on the enclosed postal on or before Wednesday, June 9, and later give the names of his party, to save duplication of assignments. Those Sir Knights who do not have automobiles and wish to take part in the Pilgrimage are urged to send word and secure tickets as early as possible so proper assignments can be made, it being a case of first come first served, and no assignments can be assured later than Monday, June 21, if then. Each automobile will start independently as soon as the number of its party is completed (about 9 A.M.) in time to arrive at the Hotel at an hour to be determined later. The price of tickets has been fixed at ten dollars each person. Room with private bath will cost one dollar extra. Tickets may be obtained at the office of the Recorder, Masonic Temple, either in person or by enclosing check and addressed envelope. It is most important that there be no delay in replying, as the time is short in which to complete necessary details, and your Committee requires all the time and assistance you can give them by your promptness to arrange for your comfort and pleasure.

Courteously yours,

JOSEPH T. PAUL, Chairman,
FRED W. ABBOTT,
GEORGE U. BAUER,
JESSE E. AMES,
CHARLES W. HOWARD,

JOINT FIELD DAY.

Boston and De Molay Commanderies K. T.

419 BOYLSTON STREET,
BOSTON, MASS., September 1, 1915.

SIR KNIGHT:

A special conclave of Boston Commandery will be held in Masonic Temple, Boston, Saturday, September 11, 1915, for the purpose of participating in a field day with De Molay Commandery.

The Commandery will be opened promptly at 8.15 A.M., the lines immediately formed and at 8.30 A.M. leave the Temple for a short parade to Rowes Wharf, where at 9.10 A.M. we will embark for Pemberton.

Full Templar Uniform — Gauntlets.

Headquarters will be established at Pemberton Inn.

Dinner will be served at one o'clock. Fatigue uniform may be worn, if desired, during stay at Pemberton. Uniform cases properly marked, if delivered at the Temple not later than 8.15 A.M., will be taken to the Inn, and brought back to the Temple.

Your Committee expects the usual hearty co-operation of the members of Boston Commandery in this opportunity for cementing old and making new friendships.

A Committee, consisting of the Captains General of each Commandery, will arrange for field sports, and like features that have in the past done so much to foster that "get together" spirit.

Suitable prizes will be given and all are expected to participate.

The price of tickets for each Sir Knight will be as formerly, two dollars, and you are requested to remit in the enclosed envelope for such tickets as you may require.

Of course we expect a large number of favorable responses, and feel you will have a pride in seeing full ranks for the parade, so let your application be prompt and hearty. However, should it not be convenient for you to appear in uniform we will be pleased to see you in "cits" just the same, so be sure to come, and help make this outing as enjoyable as any which have preceded it.

Our Fraters of De Molay will not be lacking in the endeavor to uphold their part in this field day, so let us show an equal enthusiasm. An enjoyable outing is assured for all who go, so send in your name, with money, at once, that suitable provision may be made for your comfort.

Please report promptly at 8.15 A.M., and if possible, in uniform.

Fraternally yours,

Joseph T. Paul

Eminent Commander.

Grand Commandery of Knights Templars and the Appendant Orders of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

ORGANIZED 1805.

General Orders, No. 2,
Series 1915-1916.

Office of the R. E. Grand Commander,
86 Weybosset St., Providence, R. I.

FREDERICK I. DANA, Grand Commander.

To all Knights Templars within the Jurisdiction of this Grand Commandery:

The following sentiment has been prepared by the Committee on Christmas Observance of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America.

To Right Eminent Sir Lee S. Smith, Acting Grand Master:

While we rejoice in the numerical increase and growing influence of our Order, may we more earnestly pray that the ruling motive of each life be kindness and brotherliness to all, seeking to extend a helping hand to whomsoever may stand in need, remembering the words of the Blessed Immanuel, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, ye did it unto Me."

THE ACTING GRAND MASTER SENDS THE FOLLOWING RESPONSE:
Sir Knights:

In responding to the beautiful and appropriate sentiment expressed in your toast, I heartily and earnestly enter into the spirit of the same. It is easy for me to do this, as the object aimed at has been one of the ruling passions of my life, a desire to bring sunshine and happiness into the lives of others, as I consider that no monument in bronze or marble can equal a living monument in the hearts of our fellow-beings. To so live and act that the world may be better because we have lived in it should be the aim of all members of this valiant and magnanimous Order, founded upon the life and teaching of Him of whom it is written, "Never man spake like this man," and who devoted His short earthly life for the benefit of mankind.

The occasion that called the Order of Christian Knighthood into being was the cause of those needing help and protection. The present day Templar has a sacred duty to perform, though of a different character.

I reiterate the appeal for charitable acts, not words, issued by Grand Master Melish, in Christmas response of 1910.

I call upon each of the nearly one quarter of a million Knights Templar under the jurisdiction of the Grand Encampment to individual reconsecration in the cause of humanity. Have you an enmity against a soul on earth? Go to him and be reconciled. Have you wronged anyone? Make it right. Are there those about you who have little of this world's necessities or luxuries, or upon whom fate has frowned in other ways? Then, at this happy Christmas time, go to them either with a smile or material help, and thus bring a little of the sunshine with which God has blessed you into the lives of others. By this you will prove to yourself the truthfulness of the saying, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Since our last Christmas service our beloved Grand Master, Arthur MacArthur, has answered the final call and passed to the Grand Asylum above. He fell full knightly, with his armor on. Let us revere his memory, emulate his life, and follow the teaching derived therefrom. Let us press on in life's warfare by beautiful work and good acts. Let each day embrace some good deed, some kindly act, some thought for others than ourselves.

"If we sit down at set of sun
And count the things that we have done,
And, counting, find
One self-denying act, one word
That eased the heart of him who heard,
One glance most kind,
That fell like sunshine where it went,
Then we may count the day well spent."

Courteously and fraternally,

LEE S. SMITH, Acting Grand Master.

It will be gratifying to the Grand Commander to have the Sir Knights of this jurisdiction, assembled in their asylums, their homes, or wherever they may be, join in the sentiment prepared by the committee, and in wishing the Acting Grand Master a joyous and happy Christmas as a mark of their respect and love for the Acting Grand Master.

This order will be borne upon the notice of the stated conclave next preceding December 25, A.D. 1915, A.O. 797, and be read at the head of each Commandery at said stated conclave.

Witness my hand and seal of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templars and the Appendant Orders of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, this tenth day of November, A.D. 1915, A.O. 797.

Attest:

B. W. ROWELL,
Grand Recorder.

FREDERICK I. DANA,
Grand Commander.

THE BUSINESS OF THE CONCLAVE

will be transacted at the opening.
